How to Win on a Tous. Spinning a silver dollar and then guessing heads or tails is a favorite medium for small wagers among the crowd in the alley behind the Cotton Exchange. The other day a young broker mystified everybody by producing a coin that invariably settled down heads up no matter who did the spinning. It was some little time before this peouliarity was observed, and then there was a general demand for the secret. Some suggested that the piece was loaded, which was scouted as a self evident imsuggested that the piece was loaded, possibility, and close scrutiny failed to reveal anything unusual about it. "I'll tell you how it's done, boys,"

said the owner at length, "but keep the scheme dark. All that is necessary is to pass a file a few times around the edge, so as to put on a slight bevel. It can't be seen, but the coin will fall on the beveled side every time as sure as fate. It's a good idea, by the way, to have two in your pocket-one fixed for heads and one for tails. A steady run is always suspicious, you know, and you can shift 'em occasionally."-New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Woman's Laugh. A feminine laugh has to be decorative, and so it should be the laugh of Sharkey knocked out McCoy in gayety rather than of humor.
